

MANAGEMENT RULES

FOR CAIRD PARK GOLF COURSES

Application of Rules: The Manager may require any person considered to have broken any of the Rules to leave the relevant premises and that person shall at once leave and may be refused further admission.

Admission: No person shall enter on to the Course without having obtained an appropriate ticket of admission and reported their presence to the Starter; Tickets and Cards are not transferable. Contravening this regulation could result in the forfeit to the right to play during the remainder of the day. Persistent contravention may result in removal of access to the Courses. Children under 12 years of age must be accompanied by an adult or be part of an adult supervised group at all times (excluding 9 Hole Course and Pitch & Putt). No person shall enter the Courses with a view to finding golf balls and any person guilty of picking up golf balls shall be dealt with in accordance to Law.

Access to Courses: The Courses will be open for play every day between such hours as the Organisation decide, intimated at a notice placed at the starters' box. The Organisation may for any special purpose, close the Course or Courses or part thereof to the public for such period as they may from time to time consider necessary. No person shall, during such period enter or play on any part of the Course or Courses so closed. No person shall loiter on the Course or Courses and no person shall, without the authority of the Organisation, play any game except golf. The Organisation may arrange for booking of tee times in advance, restricting the tee times available for general play. Motorised golf buggies are allowed at the discretion of the Organisation but must keep off all fairways, greens and tees and follow the designated route.

Use of Courses: The etiquette of golf must be observed as approved by the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St Andrews. Play shall take place on those parts of the park set aside for the game of golf. Before commencing play, every member shall personally obtain a ticket from the Starters box and be in receipt of the appropriate ticket and Membership card and present to an officer of the Organisation upon request. The Course shall be played in regulation, starting at the first tee, with a maximum of eighteen holes constituting a full round of golf, unless prior authorisation is obtained. During busy periods at the Course or Courses, the representative of the Organisation shall not consent to any person playing alone (excluding Pitch & Putt). It is the golfer's responsibility that no-one is in danger of being struck by a ball. No person shall play a shot until those in the tee and green area out of danger. The Organisation accept no responsibility for any accident of this type and recommend individual insurance to cover this liability. No person who has holed out shall try his putt over again when other players are following. No person shall play with less than three clubs (one of which must be a putter) in a golf bag (excluding Pitch & Putt) or in a group of more than four players. Players under the age of 16 can play off any designated tee, with the exception of White/Medal tees. Players must tee off from between the tee markers, on the designated tee which will be displayed at the Starters box. Competition/Medal/White tees are reserved and players must receive authorisation to play from these areas.

Valuables and Clothing: The Organisation shall not be held responsible and does not accept liability for the loss of or damage to property or valuables left in the building or any other part of the course. The Organisation may provide lockers for the convenience of players. The Organisation shall not be held in any way responsible for loss or damage to any property placed therein.

Prevention of Injury: No person shall disobey or ignore any instruction or order given by the Manager or staff in the interests of health and safety.

General Provisions as to Good Order: No person shall: bring into the premises alcoholic liquor or drugs; enter the premises while under the influence of drink or drugs; smoke in or around the premises; use profane, indecent or offensive language or behave or conduct oneself in an indecent, offensive, insulting, disorderly or violent manner; wilfully damage any article belonging to the Organisation or attempt to wilfully damage the same; bring or cause to be brought into the premises, glassware of any description.

Exclusion of Animals: Dogs are not permitted on the Golf Course.

Expulsions or Exclusion: The Manager may, if he/she has reasonable grounds for believing that a person has contravened, is contravening or is about to contravene any of the foregoing rules, expel or exclude that person from the relevant premises. A person who persistently contravenes or attempts to contravene the foregoing rules and is, in the opinion of the Organisation likely to contravene them again, shall be liable to be made the subject of an Exclusion Order by the Organisation for a period determined by the Manager, in terms of section 117 of the 1982 Act..

Offences: Any person who: on being required to leave the relevant premises by the Manager who has reasonable grounds for believing that the person has contravened, is contravening or is about to contravene any Management Rules, fails to leave; shall be reported to the police.
